| Foundational Catholic Theology (FCT) | Origins and Meanings | This theme requires learners to consider religious and non-religious beliefs about the origins and value of the universe and human life. Learners are expected to make relevant references to scripture, other sources of authority and contrasting scientific and/or nonreligious world-views such as those held by Atheists and Humanists. This theme must also be studied, where appropriate, from the perspective of the Jewish religious tradition |
| | Good and Evil | This theme requires learners to consider philosophical questions concerning the origins and nature of good and evil and different religious answers to the problem of evil and suffering. Learners are expected to make relevant references to scripture and other sources of authority. This theme must also be studied, where appropriate, from the perspective of the Jewish religious tradition. |
| Applied Catholic Theology (ACT) | Life and Death | This theme requires learners to consider religious beliefs about the nature of life and death. Learners are expected to make relevant references to scripture and other sources of authority. |
| | Sin and Forgiveness | This theme requires learners to consider philosophical questions concerning the nature of criminality and the rationale for punishment. Through a study of teachings and beliefs, questions relating to the justifiability of capital punishment will be explored. Learners are expected to make relevant references to scripture and other sources of authority |
| Judaism | Beliefs and Practises | Learners should be aware that Judaism is one of a diverse range of religious and non-religious traditions and beliefs in Great Britain today that includes Christianity; Buddhism; Hinduism; Islam; |
