

St Benedict's Remote Provision

Departmental Guidance

Spring Term 2022

Department Name	Provision offered	If a child has a problem, what is the best way for them to get help?	Other useful guidance
History	Resources published daily on Teams (for the lesson);	Message the teacher directly;
Sociology and Politics	Resources published daily on Teams (for the lesson); Resources published weekly on Teams;	Message the teacher directly;	Students in Year 13 have been given a range of revision materials for Sociology which they can access on Teams as well as having hard copies.
MFL	Resources published weekly on Teams;	Message the teacher directly;
Design and Technology	Resources published daily on Teams (for the lesson);	Message the teacher directly;
Food	Resources published weekly on Teams; Resources published daily on Teams (for the lesson);	Message the teacher directly;	Students could check GCSE Bitesize if they are unsure or if they don't receive a prompt response from myself
Computer Science and Business	Resources published daily on Teams (for the lesson);	Message the teacher directly; View resources provided by the national Oak Academy; Resources in Files section ;	Students may also use a Digital Exercise Book system and will find resources and tasks set via this method. Any instruction sent via Teams will be specific in where the tasks and resources can be found e.g. DEB / via a Teams Assignment/Tasks sent to the relevant channel in the class specific Teams pages
Health & Social Care	Resources are already on Teams for coursework. lessons. ;	Message the teacher directly; Check PowerPoints that have coursework task instructions.;	If students don't have access to their work, then they need to message me on Teams Chat.

Department Name	Provision offered	If a child has a problem, what is the best way for them to get help?	Other useful guidance
Maths	Resources published daily on Teams (for the lesson);	Message the teacher directly;
Art and Design	Resources published every half term;	Message the teacher directly;
Science	Resources published weekly on Teams;	Online textbook Kerboodle; Message the teacher directly;	The department policy is that work will be set once a week (as a minimum) for students absent due to COVID. This will be posted on the class TEAM (Covid Isolation Work Channel) along with any resources needed to complete the work or with instructions as to how to access the resources. If it has been organised between the teacher and the student, on some occasions live teaching may be available. If a student has a problem with the work or accessing the work, they can message the member of staff via TEAMS chat but they should also use the resources that they have available to them ie. Kerboodle & SENECA Learning.
PE and Performing Arts	Resources published weekly on Teams;	Message the teacher directly;
English	All our units are planned in detail in advance so we post the units on teams and tell students to work from the last slide they were on. Our units range from	Message the teacher directly;	Students should message their teacher in teams chat if they're struggling to find/access work, Please don't wait until they return to school

Department Name	Provision offered	If a child has a problem, what is the best way for them to get help?	Other useful guidance
	3-8 weeks so we upload new work at the end of each unit and add any resources we may have added or used in lessons in the mean time. ;		to tell us they've had trouble finding work.