EPQ

Extended Project Qualification

"It really enhanced my essay writing skills."

"Universities love it!"

What is the EPQ?

- The Extended Project Qualification is an AS Level and you complete this in either Year 12 or Year 13.
- You do it on a topic of your own choosing and we have had topics ranging from serial killers to rain forests!
- You complete a reflective production log through out the course as well as a 5000 word dissertation.
- You will also present your project to a group of your peers.

Topics that have been studied

Extended Project Qualification Topics Previously Studied

What are the flaws with our legal system?

How have Scandinavian languages developed?

Is evil innate in all mankind?

Are prisons an effective form of punishment?

Has aviation truly benefitted society?

Benefits of the EPQ

- You develop your research skills as you investigate a topic of your choice.
- You develop your independent learning skills as it is up to you to complete your research and then your dissertation.
- University and apprenticeship providers rate the EPQ highly as it shows that your research, analysis and presentation skills are great!
- It has UCAS points!
